

Role of Museum in The Development of Education

Dr. Omprokash Bharati, Head of the Department, Performing Arts, Mahatma Gandhi International University, Wardha (Maharashtra) delivered a special lecture on the “Role of museum in The Development of Education” on 1st March, 2024. The students of the History Department got enriched fabulously by the lecture. Dr. Bharati has opened the doors of diverse field and career through his fascinating lecture. It is a moment of pride and inspiration for the department as well as for the college that such an erudite scholar like Dr. Omprokash Bharati accepts our invitation and disseminating his knowledge to the gathering.
