

Students' Participation in Quiz Competition (under SVEEP program 2024)

Organized by Jalpaiguri BDO Office (Sadar)

Date: 19.03.2024

Venue: Jalpaiguri Block Development Office (Sadar)

Under the banner of the Electoral Literacy Club, students from Prasannadeb Women's College (P. D. Women's College) enthusiastically participated in a quiz competition (Voter's awareness /SVEEP program 2024) organized by the Block Development Office. The event aimed to promote electoral literacy and engage students in a stimulating intellectual exercise. The participation of P. D. Women's College students under the banner of the Electoral Literacy Club underscored the importance of promoting civic education and awareness among youth.

P. D. Women's College fielded a team of six students to represent the institution in the quiz competition. Other than our college, six more schools and colleges participated there. All the students showcased their academic prowess and enthusiasm for learning throughout the event. The students from P. D. Women's College exhibited remarkable enthusiasm and determination, actively engaging in all rounds of the competition. The team demonstrated a strong grasp of the subject matter, effectively answering questions across different categories with confidence and accuracy. Despite the competitive nature of the event, the students maintained a spirit of camaraderie and cooperation, supporting each other throughout the competition.

The Electoral Literacy Club extends its gratitude to the Jalpaiguri Block development Office (SADAR) for organizing the quiz competition. Special thanks to the B. D. O, various members of Panchayat samity, several participating students of different schools and colleges, faculty members, and organizers for their dedication and support in making the event a success.
